THE POINDEXTER BILL-IF THE PRISONER

At the Capitol and Thereabouts.

Mr. Fulkerson yesterday, from the Senate Committee on Public Institutions, re-ported to the Senate Major Walker's bill "to exempt John E. Poindexter from the clothing prescribed by law for convicts," with the following proviso or amendment at the end of the first section: "Provided, house, bowever, if at any time said Poindexter On me hall be incorcerated within the prison walls of the penitentiary he shall during such in-carceration not enjoy the benefit of this act."

The bill as reported was accompanied by the following letter from Mr. George H. Poindexter, brother of Mr. J. E. Poindex-ter, addressed to the committee to which the bill was referred:

To to Editors of the Dispatch:

The call for the "mass-meeting" at Mo zart Hall is disingenuous so far as the attempt goes to make it appear that the ques-tion before the Legislature is the legalizalarge majority of the law-abiding citizens of Richmond are against any modification of the present Sunday law," the callers can have very little confidence in the strength and influence of that majority.

All that is asked for by those who do not want the "views" of extremists crammed down their throats is that the provis Sunday fiquor law shall be so amended as to give to the cities and towns the power to on the subject. If the majority in Rich-mend is strong enough to elect to the City Council next May those who will bring the whole power of the city government to bear against the sale of refreshments Sunday, what possible harm can result to anybody exhibit its strength? If, on the other hand, the majority in Richmond is composed of those who have some respect for the rights
